This cumulative index of bi-annually published "Journal of Asian Civilizations", previously named as "Journal of Central Asian Studies" is covering the period of twenty seven years i.e. from 1978 to 2005. It facilitates the readers to approach the required material instantly. The index is divided mainly into three parts for further facilitation of the readers. These three parts are presenting the articles year, author and subject wise, respectively. Resources constraints did not let us complete the subject wise portion we however; have mentioned the respective subjects in front of all the articles.

This research oriented venture will provoke the knowledge seeking and knowledge disseminating thrust of the researchers and will open the new vistas for further research.
